

The Centre on Philanthropy
Registered Charity #335

Third Sector Conference: Charting A Shared Course
February 2, 2018 from 8:30 am – 5:30 pm
The Hamilton Princess and Beach Club

Conference Sessions

Welcome Message, Graham Pewter

The Centre on Philanthropy Interim Board Chair

Opening Plenary with Andrew Lockie

The Power Of Measuring Your Impact

Using practical examples and professional experience, Andrew will share his thoughts from the perspective of an executive staff leader on how to measure the impact of programs in the philanthropic sector and the tremendous power that comes with doing so. He

Rochelle Simons
Institute of Directors

This workshop will answer the question: How to engage your board and increase their performance?

Vivien Carter, Bank of Bermuda Foundation and Raquel Figueroa, Forward Thought Consulting

This workshop will answer the question: How can we use measurement data to drive fundraising?

Denise Riviere
OD Solutions

This workshop will answer the question: What's the reality of succession planning in nonprofit organisations?

Plenary with Crystal Clay

Personal development

Jennifer Burland Adams
The Association of Fundraising Professionals
Bermuda Chapter

This workshop will answer the question: How can we better engage individual donors?

Margaret Hallett

This workshop will answer the question: What is Collective Impact and how can it help us to have more valuable collaborations?

Crystal Clay
Olive Branch Consulting

This workshop will answer the question: How can you empower your organization using Strengths Based Leadership?

Table Talk - Charting a Shared Course

Table Talk allows for more interaction, questions and learning as small groups gather to talk about key strengths and challenges in the Sector. Reflecting on varying topics, groups will talk about the challenges on the horizon for the nonprofit sector and some solutions that will help move our sector forward.

Closing Plenary with Nora Spinks

Leadership Today and Tomorrow

With more than 20 years experience consulting with corporations, governments and community organizations on work-life balance around the world, Nora Spinks, CEO of The Vanier Institute of the Family, specializes in, work-life quality, leveraging generational diversity and community development.

Closing Remarks, Danielle Riviere

The Centre on Philanthropy Interim Executive Director